Calculating the licence fee

For firms of 1-10 and 11-50 total employees the fee is a flat annual fee as shown in the rate card.

For larger firms of 51 employees or more the annual fee is calculated by multiplying the number of Professional Employees of the firm by the rate applicable to the Law Licence as shown in the rate card and on CLA's website and subject to any Minimum Fee shown therein.

Definition of a professional employee

Where applicable, the number of professional employees on which the licence fee is based should include the partners, officers or employees of the firm that are solicitors of the Supreme Court, barristers called to the English Bar or Fellows of the Institute of Legal Executives (or who hold an equivalent qualification from another jurisdiction) a qualified accountant and all others holding equivalent professional qualifications ordinarily working in the United Kingdom.
